Dustine was happy. She had everything she could've possibly wanted. A good paying job, a supportive and loving boyfriend, an long time best friend living next door, a nice place in New York--Everything. But when her best friend goes missing, leaving only a cryptic final message behind, Dustine is forced to return to her old home town of Breslin, Alabama. However, rather than finding the usual country hicks and well-meaning evangelicals that she'd grown up with, she discovers something much darker. Something that controls the lives of everyone in the town and beyond...or really, someone.

In this dark parody of the Japanese Harem genre, prepare to discover just how far someone will go for love, or at the very least, the basic concept of happiness.
