God has a Purpose on Your Life

There is a driving force within you to accomplish something much greater than yourself and to fulfill the call of God on your life.

However... how do you know what that calling is?

Colette Toach takes you by the hand and helps you to realize the call of God that has been whispering to you all along.

It is the conviction of your calling that will fuel the fire to push through when times get rough. By teaching you how to KNOW His will for you and to hear clearly from Him, you will receive the conviction that will push you through the fire time and time again.

Learn how to experience His presence and you will no longer need not feel lost or insecure about the choices you will make. When you know how to get a rhema word from God, nothing can stop you from moving forward.

Then as you realize your calling, map out the training that is sure to come. Each fivefold ministry training is geared to shape you into a certain kind of vessel. Apostle Colette goes the extra mile and explains in detail which one(s) you will go through and what it is going to produce in you.

By the end of this book, you will know too much. So much so that you will be held accountable for fulfilling your call. There will be no more excuses as to why you cannot succeed. There is an anointing released in this book that will challenge, convict, motivate and launch you into your calling!
