Essential ENT Practice: A Clinical Text Rogan Corbridge, Will Hellier

Essential ENT Practice is an exciting new textbook which offers a modern and up to date guide to the practice of Ear, Nose and Throat medicine. Written in a lively and accessible manner, the needs of undergraduates and the demands of the new curriculum have been recognised in this innovative text. Topics are approached in a problem orientated manner and basic sciences and clinical information are integrated throughout. Case studies further emphasise clinical relevance and provide the opportunity for self assessment. Useful revision aids such as chapter overviews, key points and other summary boxes will prove popular with students.
