"Jim Coomer captures the essence of traveling and playing golf in Scotland in his wonderful book (possibly) The Best (golf) Vacation Ever. Coming to Scotland to play golf is indeed an unforgettable experience and for many, who thought it would be a once in a lifetime trip, it became an experience that must be repeated as often as possible — as Jim describes in his descriptive and humorous travelogue." — Peter Craigon - Morton Golf Holidays

Jim Coomer's book should be read by everyone who is planning a golfing holiday to Scotland or anyone who has ever wondered what a golfing holiday to Scotland would be like. His descriptive writing about Scotland's Scots, and Scotland's golf courses, known and unknown, is both delightful and instructive. His love for the country is obvious and infectious. — Donald Ford, author of the Carnoustie Story
