Ariana de Havilland wanted nothing to do with nice guys. As the daughter of a billionaire and a busy lawyer, she was looking a relationship that required her to show up, take off her clothes and be pleased - something bad boys knew how to do to perfection. Until she met Cameron Townsend, star hockey player and ultimate nice guy, Ariana had been happy to dedicate her life to her career. Cam convinced her he could be a bad boy in bed but a nice guy in life and Ariana's not been able to look back since. But is Cameron hiding something that will jeopardize everything? Will this nice guy break her heart or lead her somewhere she never expected?

Excerpt:

"...He was exactly the kind of commitment I could entertain at this junction in my life - namely, none. He was interested in my family's connections and enjoyed the pleasures of my black Amex card, I was interested in the way his * could make me come after I'd gotten off an eight hour flight from Caracas."

This book contains adult material and is not suitable for readers under the age of 18.
