Life works in mysterious ways.

For the last four years Aundrea McCall has been fighting for her life. Now, at twenty-one, all she wants is to be treated normal and not as the girl with cancer. After another failed treatment, she's asked to be part of a trial study which involves moving to a new city to live with her sister.

A relationship with a man is the furthest thing from her mind, but when a night of careless dancing with friends turns into leaving with a complete stranger for a one night stand, her world is turned upside down.

Parker Jackson is persistent and knows exactly what he wants.

Her.

He gives Aundrea hope, and for the first time, makes her feel alive. In fear of him seeing her differently, and walking away forever, Aundrea decides to withhold the one piece of information that could either break them, or bring them closer--her cancer.

**This bundle includes both full length powerful, emotional, and steamy love stories in the What's Left of Me duet series. For mature readers only****
