Bruce was excited; he felt happy and gay,

Today was sister moose's wedding day.

Bruce wore his new suit and tie with pride,

The wedding was at six at the riverside.

Such delightful story about helping others...even if you are in a hurry. As you can see from the drawing to the upper right, Maxi is indeed a turtle!

In this children's book, Bruce the Moose is going to his sister's wedding in the evening. He decides that he needs to take a nap and sets his alarm. Well, I think you can guess what happens, right? Fortunately for him, he encounters his friend Maxi. Unfortunately, she has a bit of a problem. Despite the hurry he is in Bruce the Moose does not hesitate in helping his best friend. And, Maxi returns the favor.

Just a wonderful story that the author says she has written for ages 2 - 8 and P - 4.

I will admit that I had to laugh at some of the drawings...especially Bruce in his suit and his sister in her wedding dress. And, the gift he gave to his sister is priceless~The author is most creative and I enjoy that in a children's book. In addition the drawings are well done and colorful. The book also rhymes which I always think enhances the book for the little ones.
