Powerful concepts and ideologies seem to translate to all fields of life. The irony is that these concepts get overused and taken for granted. What is left after this process is a list of poorly used habits. Good communication skills seem to be a thing of the past. With social networks and majority of communication done with electronics the average person has lost sense of the benefits of mastering conversation skills. This book demonstrates the methodical habit building of proper communication skills that have personally taken me from being a partially efficient student, father, business owner, and employee to being in control of my entire life. This quick read can redirect your habits toward becoming a highly efficient person in many areas of your life. You are the habits you keep. Start building the right ones today.
