Sleeping Season (The Hinterland Book 2) Austin King

From the #1 bestselling co-author of NIMBUS: A STEAMPUNK NOVEL* comes THE HINTERLAND, a character-driven high fantasy novel with some dark fantasy and horror elements. SLEEPING SEASON is the second book in the series.

The world is ending.

The Eventide experiences nine months of darkness every year known as the Sleeping Season. People grow restless, crops don't grow, and the threat of war looms more than ever.

It is during this time that the country to the north, in the midst of a civil war, must rely on a band of mercenaries for their salvation. Meanwhile, two new people enter the fray: a bounty hunter working for a corrupt politician, and a vigilante with a secret past. They are brought together by the enigmatic figure known as the Pale Stranger, whose motives continue to remain secret.

And in the Eventide, an insane man plots to usurp the throne with his loyal followers. An assassin swears revenge against the people who tried to kill her and becomes allies with an aging knight. As these factions clash, an even bigger threat is on its way—a plague that has already killed thousands.

Here is the second volume of THE HINTERLAND, the sequel to A SCATTERED WIND.
