All the Light We Cannot See: A Novel by Anthony Doerr | Summary & Analysis

Two strangers meet in the night searching for a way out. Once a blind woman searching for a safe way through the bombs and back to her family. The other a solider searching for the voice that began his journey into the Hitler's Germany. These two are destined to meet during the horrors of the journey through WWII. There is also a gem that can change the fate of them all, protecting the holder from harm's way. How do their worlds intertwine, through radio waves and the search for something bigger than themselves? Whom will touch your heart or open your eyes to the past?
