Between a Hard Place and a Rock is the biography of our home. From its humble beginnings, this journey takes readers through the growing pains of renewal and rejuvenation complete with trials, tribulations, successes, and triumphs. Our story is actually two stories in one. The first is an account of the physical structure, the renovation, and how the home's character came alive. The second tells of the problems, challenges, triumphant victories, and God's miracles woven throughout. Inspired by a visit from a relative and her adulation for what we were doing and who we are as a Christian couple, she couldn't know the renovation of the house itself was God's way of making us over into something beautiful and lovely.
