Reprinted and with a NEW Preface January 2004 The Relationships Foundation exists to foster relational approaches to social, economic and other problems – including justice issues. Edited by two people closely involved with the work of the Foundation, Relational Justice has proved a highly successful adjunct to the main work of that organization. This influential book – with contributors ranging from the New Zealand judge Fred McElrea to Professor Tony Bottoms of the Cambridge University Institute of Criminology - presents a uniquely refreshing challenge and will appeal to people who prefer non-adversarial, non-conflict and non-argument-laden solutions. A truly ground-breaking work.
