Everyone is in a race. Not all know or have this understanding; those who are conscious of this are diligent with every step they take. Athletes with winning attitudes are always informed of the kind and type of race they are in to.

Many have run this same race of eternal life before our time; some ran very well according to prescription while others ran at their terms. The increasing pressure in life and ministry makes it most needful to do a personal self examination on HOW WELL one is running- in life, home, vocation and ministry.

This book in your hand is aimed at informing and equipping you for this life race.
