She loves the costumes, she loves the visitors, and she especially loves the two delicious men she has worked with for the past three years. After accidentally stumbling upon them in the midst of a menage, she hasn't been able to get them out of her head.

Finn Macmillan and Sebastian Kol share a secret that binds them together tighter than any oath or bond. Both outcasts of their people, they must keep their Alpha tendencies subdued to maintain their secrecy. Finn, as a dragon shifter, has found refuge in the transient nature of the Renaissance fair, easily hiding his true nature. As a Bear shifter with a troubled past, and even more trouble trusting people, Sebastian considers it a true blessing that Finn found him, and took him under his wings.

Beatrice finally gets the chance to make all her fantasies a reality, but can she overcome her own doubts to make it happen?
