If you persist . . . You will win! When heavyweight boxing champion, Stacey "The Red Bull" Walker is sentenced to community service at an all-male charter school, it doesn't improve his temper. What if the nerdy kids find out he can't read? No-nonsense principal, Millicent Houston is challenged by the arrogant athlete's opinion that her students are fat. The boys are ultra-excited about the boxer's exercise class but it's low on her list of priorities because her charter is in jeopardy unless she adds girls to the classroom this year. This certainly wasn't the plan documented by her deceased husband. An empowering story unfolds as Millicent discovers you can love again after a loss and Stacey embraces learning when partnered with a special fifth grader.
