WHEN ALL HELL BREAKS LOOSE... RICHARD ROBERTS

When a book is titled "When All Hell Breaks Loose," it promises to be a good read. In his newest book, evangelist Richard Roberts, son of the well-known minister Oral Roberts, takes a look at what Christians can do to stand strong when trouble comes their way. "Trouble can come at a moment's notice in anyone's life," Roberts says. "Yes, you may have to walk through the roaring flames of the fire," he says, "but you don't have to stop in the middle of that mess! You can make a holy, determined decision that even if it seems like your world is falling apart, you will not be destroyed." Speaking from his personal experience from over 30 years of ministry as well as classic examples from the Bible, Roberts looks at how people from past generations have remained strong in faith, no matter how dire their circumstances. The book aims to encourage today's readers that they can get through hard times too, through faith, an important message for Christians in a time when the church, the economy, and other social structures are under increasing pressure. "When All Hell Breaks Loose" has already gained endorsements from popular ministers such as Joel Osteen, Paul Crouch Jr., and Marilyn Hickey, among others.
