Abigail Foster is thrilled that her husband David is returning home for the holidays. He's been recently injured in the line of duty in Afghanistan and although he says he's fine, she needs to see him to reassure herself that he didn't sustain any lasting injuries.

Anticipating days and nights of bliss, she's shocked when he turns up with Corporal Lawrence Pickering in tow. The man may have saved David's life, but she has not seen her husband in months! How can they enjoy the perfect homecoming she's planned when the other man is in the bedroom next door and the walls of their home are as thin as paper?

And why is Mr Pickering so tall...so strong...and so good looking?
